To, Human Resources

Dear Employer,

I am well-qualified and highly proficient in the field of Drafting and Technological Development, who would be an exceptional choice for this position.

My career growth potential is second to none, fully capable of handling responsibility and building positive relationships with work colleagues at all levels. My previous employer was very satisfied with my work rate, and I am confident that I can bring the same level of high performance to your company.

I trust that my services, experience, and status for superiority can greatly enhance your company's already impressive performance. I have a proven track record of obligations towards integrity and commitment to business objectives. I am a team player in the office, I love working in demanding atmospheres, and I am self-starter necessitating very little supervision.

I believe I can make a positive influence on your organization and am looking forward to the opportunity. I very much hope that you will look promisingly upon my application by recognizing my enthusiasm, aptitudes, commitment and future potential.

Thank you in advance for your time and consideration.

Yours sincerely,

Brian Collette
